

Transcend Beyond the Scope – VIC 2025

Flabia Orison is the CEO and Founder of Transcend Beyond the Scope, a consulting firm dedicated to creating inclusive spaces and advancing equity for culturally and linguistically diverse (CALD) and marginalised communities.

We work with businesses, government agencies, and non-profits to deliver tailored solutions that break down barriers, amplify diverse perspectives, and drive meaningful organisational change. By combining innovative strategies with cultural insight, we empower organisations to build trust, embrace diversity, and create environments where everyone can thrive.

Our expertise includes leadership development, cultural competency training, and community engagement, designed to help organisations connect authentically with diverse groups and achieve lasting impact. At Transcend Beyond the Scope, inclusion is not just a value—it's a strategic advantage.

Ready to create transformative change? Partner with us to build stronger, more inclusive connections.
